

The Indian Elections of 2014: Ramifications for India and Beyond (26 May 2014, SINGAPORE)

Co-organised by the Asia Research Institute (ARI), NUS and the Singapore Indian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (SICCI)

MONDAY, 26 MAY 2014

15:30 - 16:00	REGISTRATION
16:00 - 16:10	OPENING / WELCOME REMARKS
	Prasenjit Duara Director, Asia Research Institute, National University of Singapore
16:10 - 16:30	SPEAKER 1
	Decoding the Result: An Analysis of India's 2014 Elections Dr Ronojoy Sen Asia Research Institute and Institute of South Asian Studies, NUS
16:30 - 16:50	SPEAKER 2
	Elections, Growth and Well Being in India Assoc Prof Rahul Mukherji South Asian Studies Programme, NUS
16:50 - 17:10	SPEAKER 3
	THE REAL QUESTIONS? Mr Ashish Rajadhyaksha Asia Research Institute, NUS
17:10 - 17:30	SPEAKER 4
	The Foreign Policy Perspective in the Aftermath of the Indian General Election Ambassador K. Kesavapany Ambassador to the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan
17:30 - 18:00	QUESTION AND ANSWER
18:00	END