

Mr Nicholas HONG

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/nichong17/>

Education

- B.Soc.Sci (Geography) National University of Singapore

Professional Experience

JULY 2025 TO PRESENT

Research Assistant, Asia Research Institute, NUS

- Assisted with ongoing research projects
- Qualitative coding of interview data

DECEMBER 2023 TO MAY 2025

Undergraduate Research Assistant, Asia Research Institute, NUS

- Involvement with the “Ways of Being and Belonging: Integration, Identity and Social Resilience of Cross-National Families in Singapore (X-Fam)” project
 - Assisted with fieldwork and qualitative coding of interview data

Research Area/Topic/Discipline

Urban Geography, Migration

Short Biography

Nicholas Hong completed his BSocSci (Hons) in Geography at the National University of Singapore (NUS). He is currently working as a research assistant involved in various projects within the Asian Migration Cluster at ARI. His research interests include urban studies, political geography, and migration studies.

Publications

Book Chapter

Cheng, Y., & Hong, N. (Accepted). Biopolitics from postcolonial nation to globalising city-state: Singapore's education in the management of citizenship life. In Edward Elgar Handbook on Geographies of Education, (eds) Peter Kraftl, Sarah Holloway, Cheng Yi'En, Silvie Rita Kučerová.